PTA Leader Points Finger At Adults

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—The president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers said today that adults must blame themselves for giving adolescents too much power and not enough responsibility.

"It is we who have led many of them to believe—or pretend—that everything in life is or should be fun," Jennifer Moorehead said in her prepared keynote address to the PTA's 70th annual convention.

"It is we who have invited our young people to dwell for seven years or so in an unreal and hence unwholesome world of their own, a world that too often has little relation to the adult world."

"Parents and teachers, in our effort to be permissive, have too often been submissive," Mrs. Moorehead, of Eugene, Ore., told the convention that there is another end of the spectrum.

"We have thousands of able, responsible youngsters being pressured to make high grades so that they can qualify for college, and to maintain those grades in order to stay there," she said.

"I would be the last person to decry superior academic achievement, but I would be remiss not to cry out against the exaggerated importance today attached to grades as grades, as distinguished from the true purpose of education."

About 2,000 delegates representing 6,000 PTAs throughout the country and in American schools overseas are attending the four-day meeting which began Sunday with a vesper service.

Mrs. Moorehead said the association has "reached a turning point in its history. There are critical internal issues to be resolved, and we are called upon to make crucial decisions. Upon this convention rests the responsibility to assure the PTA a confident, splendid future."

Ex-Castleford Man Gets Civilian Award From Army

CASTLEFORD.—Dr. William C. Pettijohn, Monterey, Calif., son of H. R. Pettijohn, Castleford, has been honored for his distinguished service as director of the research office of the U.S. Army Combat Developments Command Experimentation Command.

Dr. Pettijohn has been active in Army research and development programs since June, 1954, when he joined the Johns Hopkins University operations research office.

He has participated in the development of the 44mm grenade launcher, the SALVO rifle program, antitank studies, computer simulation of company-sized combined arms action and other long-range planning studies at Johns Hopkins.

The Outstanding Civilian Service Medal is one of the highest which can be received by a civilian in the service of the Army.

More than 60 civilian scientists, under Dr. Pettijohn's direction, experiment with and evaluate the combat tactics, techniques and organizations which may be required by the Army for survival and victory on some possible battlefield of the future.

Did Back Fail You, or Did You Fail Back?

BY HANS KRAUS, M.D.
The question to ask is "Did your back fail you, or did you fail your back?"
Some organic disease causes back pain—but it is only a small percentage of the total cases. There are sometimes arthritis changes or disc trouble, or other causes.
But in something like 80 percent of the cases, at a special clinic, people complaining of back pain were shown to be suffering from muscular deficiencies, rather than pathological disorders.

The muscle-deficient sufferers were otherwise healthy, except for the pain. When they took the six K-W tests previously mentioned, they failed on one or more.
They simply didn't have either the muscle strength or muscle flexibility to handle their own body weight and size. Most of them improved under exercise, and a check 10 years later showed that so long as they exercised, they kept strong, resilient muscles and remained free of pain.
Many of these patients had localized and exquisitely tender spots in the muscles. Such spots can occur in different parts of the body, but they are frequently in the neck, shoulders, upper or lower backs, or the hip muscles. They are called trigger points because they trigger pain. They can be caused by constant or acute strain of the muscles, or by muscle spasm. They are, in a sense, like scar tissue. They are extremely painful and can trigger pain by triggering muscle tension or spasm.
They usually appear if minor episodes of back pain go untrapped. Once formed, the episodes of pain will often recur—may increase in both frequency and intensity.

Slipped Discs? When we examine a patient with chronic back pain, caused by weakness or tension, we feel the muscles gently with our fingers to detect any trigger points. If there are none, exercise therapy can start once pain subsides, usually after about a week.

We use ethyl chloride spray and other physical therapy to help relieve the pain.
If we find trigger points, we mark the locations on the skin. Then we inject each trigger point with procaine. This kills the pain. But more important, both the needle and the injected fluid break up the trigger point by the force of hydraulic pressure. Once the trigger point is eliminated, the patient can begin corrective exercises.

Sometimes a doctor may find another kind of tenderness—by gently rolling a patient's skin between his fingers. If the skin itself is very sensitive, it is known as fibrositis. It responds well to pinching massage if carried out regularly for weeks, sometimes months.

Some patients, thinking they have "slipped discs," are disappointed to find they have only trigger points, unglamorous as compared to the well publicized disc problem that seems to strike celebrities so often.

A "slipped disc" is caused when the ligamentous disc contents ooze out and press on nerves.

Trigger points and discs can be confused because they show similar symptoms. Both produce radiating pain in either the upper or lower back and down the backs of legs and arms. But that's the end of the similarity. Discs can cause loss of reflexes; loss of sensation; numbness or weakness. Trigger points cannot.

Some people still think they have disc trouble—when the problem is really muscles.

Even in cases of disc trouble, surgery is not necessarily called for. There are times, many times as a matter of fact, when exercises to retrain inadequate muscles can offset damage to the spinal column.

This was true of a patient we'll call Mr. C. A man in his early 40's came to the clinic with pain in his back and right leg. He had already been through two operations for spinal fusion and removal of a disc. Yet the pain persisted.

There was no doubt he had disc trouble, but to avoid surgery again, we thought it would be worthwhile to try different treatment. Mr. C. agreed.

First he had to take a month's leave of absence from his job as a manufacturing firm executive. This eliminated tension from work. We began the first month to deal with painful trigger points in his back and start him on a gradual retraining program. Adding to this was a program of rest at home, a surgical-cast-corrugated-muscle-exercise program. There were three exercise sessions at the clinic each week, plus exercise at home on non-clinic days.

It took more than six months to get his muscles back to normal and to slowly wean him away from the supporting corset.

There are many factors that can cause back pain—under-exercise, tension, glandular imbalance, severe injury. But other factors like overweight, flat feet, unequal leg lengths, poor sleeping or seating facilities can play a part.

Fortunately, much back pain can be prevented or remedied. Next: Exact Dosage Vital in Exercising.

Pope Dismal Over Polish Visit Block

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI says the reasons given by Communist Poland for blocking his planned visit there earlier this month "are not justified."

The pontiff said Sunday that the Warsaw regime's decision, preventing him from making a pilgrimage to Poland May 3, had caused him "deep displeasure."

In a speech closing the Vatican celebration of the 1,000th anniversary of Christianity in Poland, the Pope also defended Polish primate Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski against Communist charges of political meddling.

The pontiff had been invited by Cardinal Wyszynski to come to Poland to help celebrate the millennium of Polish Christianity. The Polish hierarchy had hoped he would be able to preside at ceremonies at Czestochowa, climaxing the celebrations.

But late in March the Warsaw government said such a visit, which would have been the first in history by a Pope to a Communist land, would be "inopportune."

The rejection came during a church-state uproar caused by a letter of reconciliation sent last fall by Polish bishops to West German, Roman Catholic bishops.

Investor's guide! A Cadillac remains unmistakably a Cadillac regardless of year. New or previously-owned, its impressive size, its remarkable beauty and its continuity of styling have all contributed to Cadillac's reputation as the finest of all luxury car investments.

Every day, more and more wise car buyers are discovering that they can get more performance, luxury, distinction and pride of ownership in a previously-owned Cadillac than in many new cars of lesser stature. For example, Cadillac engineering has always been so advanced that many features of Cadillacs several years old are just now finding their way into new cars of other makes. And Cadillac has for years provided as standard equipment automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, power windows and power seats on most models, automatic cornering lights and many other conveniences that even now cost extra on most new cars. Consider, too, the extra reassurance of motoring in an automobile of Cadillac's impressive size and stature. Before you buy your next car, be sure to look for your authorized Cadillac dealer's used car sign. It is the best possible landmark for a wide, attractively priced selection of well-cared for, previously-owned Cadillac cars.

TRUSTY MISSING
BOISE (AP) — An Idaho State Prison trusty was discovered missing Sunday night in an evening count at the prison's Eagle Island farm.

Prison officials said William Clements, 25, was last seen Sunday morning. State Police did not set up roadblocks.

Clements had been serving a 30-month sentence on conviction of forgery in Ada County.

RALLY SCHEDULED
POCATELLO (AP) — A bipartisan political rally here Saturday is expected to draw U.S. congressmen and Idaho Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

The rally will conclude a political action course sponsored by the Pocatello Chamber of Commerce.

Officials say firm commitments have been received from House Minority Leader Gerald Ford, R-Mich.; Rep. John Moss, D-Calif.; Rep. Chet Holifield, D-Calif.; and former congressman Walter Judd, a Minnesota Republican.

Idaho Reps. Compton I. White, Democrat, and George Hansen, Republican, and Idaho Sen. Len B. Jordan, Republican, also plan to attend.

STUDENTS SELECTED
BOISE (AP) — Two Idaho high school students with science honors were named by Gov. Robert E. Smylie Sunday as Idaho's delegates to the National Youth Science Camp in West Virginia.

They are Timothy Dean Benedict, Pocatello, president of the National Honor Society at Highland High School, and Julian R. Blinn, Caldwell, vice-president of his senior class.

Both received straight A grades over the past two years, Smylie said.

The camp will be held June 28 to July 16.

SURVEY PRESENTED
NAMP, Idaho (AP) — A survey concluding that chiropractic better than surgery in a number of back injury cases was presented over the weekend to the state convention of Idaho chiropractors.

The survey, conducted by the American Chiropractic Association, was presented by Dr. Leonard J. Savage, a chiropractic orthopedist from Los Angeles.

Dr. Savage said State of Washington Department of Labor and Industry figures showed 20 percent of back injury cases over five years were total failures and only 20 percent showed "very good" results.

MILLER WITHDRAWALS
COEUR D'ALENE (AP) — Charles H. Miller, who has withdrawn from the Republican gubernatorial nomination race, said Sunday he would support the state's new sales tax.

"There should surely be some way to cut the budget other than taxing the people to death," Miller said.

He said reappointment of the sales tax to the legislature if voters repeat it in a referendum on the November ballot would constitute dictatorship.

Miller said he withdrew from the gubernatorial nomination race because he failed to get the necessary 1,000 signatures on petitions for candidate filing.

MAN ARRESTED
BOISE (AP) — Officers arrested a 20-year-old Boise man Monday in connection with an early morning shooting. Charged with assault with a deadly weapon was Robert E. Bates.

Officers said Clifford Patten, 21, also of Boise, was injured in the incident. They said a bullet hit the man in the head but did not fracture his skull. He was treated at a hospital, then released.

Officers said the shooting took place at the Yatesville truck stop on state highway 44 west of Boise but they said they had not determined the cause of the incident.

MAN, WIFE KILLED
WEISER, Idaho (AP) — The deaths of an Emmett man and wife in a train-pickup collision that ripped the pickup apart and set it afire, killed Idaho's 1966 traffic toll to 70.

Weiser Police said the victims were Powell R. Herman, 44, driver of the pickup, and his wife, Luella, 31.

Police said the pickup burst into flames when struck by a Union Pacific freight train. They said the car was ripped from the rear section and carried three-fourths of a mile down the tracks.

Police said the collision was at the Ninth Street crossing west of the city limits. They said the crossing does not have traffic control.

Idaho's traffic toll at this time last year was 75.

ENDORSE TAX
LEWISTON (AP) — Idaho's Young Republicans have endorsed the state's new sales tax and have advocated a blockade of North Vietnamese ports.

A resolution backing the tax was adopted overwhelmingly Saturday as the Young Republicans closed their three-day state convention.

But there were objections to the tax endorsement from delegates supporting State Sen. Don Samuelson of Sandpoint for governor.

BEGIN FLIGHT
MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — Thirty members of the Moscow Chamber of Commerce planned to begin a good will flight today to eight southern Idaho communities.

The three-day tour will include a visit to a sheep ranch, a briefing on atomic energy at the National Reactor Testing Station and tours of several industrial complexes.

Dr. John Ayers, chairman of the chamber's aviation committee, said over the weekend seven private planes would be used for the tour.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie is to lunch with the chamber members Wednesday.

DR. DAVIS SPEAKS
BOISE (AP) — The need for "enlightened men with courage and conviction" is a constant factor in history, Idaho State University President William E. Davis told 265 Boise College graduates Sunday.

Dr. Davis said the graduates at commencement services education is not enough. "The need, he said, is for men who not only possess learning and knowledge, but even more important, insight and wisdom."

The commencement was the last restricted to two-year graduates. Boise College will award its first bachelor degrees at 1967 commencement exercises.

Four-year courses were authorized by the 1963 legislature.

Your Spine and Your Health

By Dr. Ludwig C. Landwehr

"Tractor-back" is a relatively new, yet common, ailment among our farmers causing much discomfort, pain and many lost working hours. If today's farmer still could work with horse, he would have to let them rest after 8 to 9 hours of work. But because his tractor doesn't need the rest, the farmer works himself almost twice as long.

The bounding, jolting and concentration over such a long period of time will fatigue the muscular system to such an extent that the whole skeletal framework finally gives, causing nerve pressure and the usual resulting loss of proper body mechanics. With the lower back pain, shoulder pains, neckaches and headaches. A regular check with his doctor of chiropractor and thereby obtaining relief from pain and distress as well as avoiding many chronic ailments in later life, will let every farmer add to his own comfort and well being.

Lloyd Walker Takes Stab at Smylie Policy

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — A Democratic candidate for governor charged Sunday Gov. Robert C. Smylie's administration "has made stagnation its policy" and urged university students to help Idaho progress.

Candidate Lloyd Walker of Twin Falls, in an address prepared for a model political convention at the University of Idaho, said the state's investment in education and youth should create a "hopeful future."

"Instead you have a stifled administration," he said, "which was reared in defeatism, which has made stagnation its policy and which has failed miserably to respond to the challenge of tomorrow."

Walker said Idaho "is now saddled with a second-rate sagging economic structure" which he said drives young people elsewhere to seek careers.

"He said his aim is to start Idaho moving and urged the students to support his campaign."

"You are young and, I hope, full of fire and imagination," Walker said. "You can and you must break the stranglehold, not of conservative philosophy, but of undue caution and fear."

"Only fear-of-tomorrow," he said, "will bring a tomorrow we must fear."

Snow, Mirror Save Plane Crash Victims

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont. (AP) — Two women and a man were alive today, thanks to four feet of soft snow which eased the shock of a mountain plane crash-landing, and a mirror from a woman's handbag which brought a quick rescue.

Back home in Pocatello with only minor injuries were Mr. and Mrs. Don F. Kline.

Hospitalized with serious leg injuries was their passenger, Mrs. Lena Helkes.

They were rescued Sunday afternoon from a mountain ridge about 15 miles southwest of West Yellowstone, near the Idaho-Montana state line.

Mrs. Kline and Mrs. Helkes were flown from the crash site to West Yellowstone by helicopter. Mrs. Helkes was then flown by airplane to a hospital in Pocatello.

Kline was brought out by a rescue party.

Rescuers said they had to cut some of the airplane framework to get Mrs. Helkes out to avoid further injury to her leg.

The three took off early Saturday on a flight from Pocatello to Billings, Mont.

Mrs. Kline said they were flying over Hoboken Lake, adjacent to Yellowstone National Park, when they tried to land.

The plane began to ice up but the plane began to ice up immediately and lose altitude.

"My husband said for us to buckle our seat belts. We were going to crash," Mrs. Kline said.

The plane hit a tree which tore off one wing and one wheel. The impact flipped it around and it landed upside down in the soft snow.

They found it impossible to build a fire in the snow, even though they tried using gasoline from the airplane. They used a magazine to make a splint for Mrs. Helkes' leg, munched on a few minties—the only food they had—and snuggled together beneath their scanty clothes for warmth during the night.

The temperature at the 7,000-8,000-foot level was believed well below freezing.

They were spotted about noon. Three men in a search plane said they were some distance away when they saw the plane.

"Kids, I Wish I Had a Dozen!" But It Poses Problem If They're All Under 10

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — In the Vernon and Mary Shafer family, not quite 10-year-old children are posing a problem.

The family has 12 children, all under 10 years old. The children are: Laurie, 9; Kurt and Kris, 8; Kevin and Karen, 7; Jack and Jane, 3; and Thomas, 2.

Shafer, 43, works days in his uncle's grain and poultry-hatching business and nights helping his wife keep house.

"I'd like having two jobs," he said amiably.

Shafer washes dishes, scrubs floors, bathes the children, helps them dress, cuts their hair, takes the older ones to Mass on Sundays and deals out any necessary spankings.

"He's got it over any husband I've ever seen," said Mary. "He's something special."

Mrs. Shafer herself spends nine hours a day feeding and caring for the new twins and another three or four hours cooking and ironing. There is a weekly turnover of 200 diapers alone.

The latest twins are girls, Susan and Sally. They balanced out the Shafer brood at six of each sex.

The others are Laurie, the first-born, not quite 10; Kurt and Kris, 8; Kevin and Karen, 7; Jack and Jane, 3; and Thomas, 2.

Shafer said wistfully that he used to shoot a little golf and take a hand in country-club sessions in the old, childless days, but no more.

"We don't have people over very often, either," he said. "Who'd want to sit around and watch you put 12 kids to bed?"

The Shafers conceded that the number of their children had outstripped their fondest hopes.

"I think five or six would be just right," said Shafer. "But we're happy with our 12. I wouldn't take a million dollars for any of them."

Chiang Begins Fourth Term At President

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Chiang Kai-shek begins his fourth six-year term Friday as Nationalist China's president. Taking office beside him will be an economics expert whom Chiang himself chose as his heir apparent.

The vice president-elect, C.K. Yen, will be the first non-military man to hold the office.

Yen is now premier. The last vice president, Chen Cheng, died in March 1955, and since then there has been no constitutional successor to Chiang.

Chiang at 78 is in good health and leads an active life. His last serious illness was in 1952 when he underwent prostate surgery.

Chiang passed over a number of his contemporaries to select a younger man, Yen is 60. He was also chosen because of his proven ability as an administrator and economic expert. Before becoming premier in December 1953, he served a four-year term as governor of Formosa, sandwiched between two periods as minister of finance, 1950-54 and 1958-63.

Yen has a wife, five sons, four daughters and seven grandchildren.

Chiang regards Yen's excellent command of English as an asset that makes one of Chiang's own shortcomings.

Another asset, in which Chiang admits he himself is deficient, is Yen's internationally recognized expertise in economics.

Son Intervenes

OAKLEY—Gary Clark Cranney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cranney, has been accepted by the University of Pennsylvania to serve a two-year internship in equine (horse) surgery.

He was one of three graduating veterinarians chosen in the United States for the resident internship. Cranney will graduate shortly from the Washington State University, Pullman, with a doctor's degree.

He is married to the former Lucy Heiner, Oakley, and they have one child.

Science Shrinks Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new, healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

District Head Speaks at Carey Meet

CAREY—Vernon Exner, county superintendent, spoke at the Junior-Senior Banquet Friday night at the Carey High School.

He used the theme, "It's in Giving Oneself That Makes One Rich" as his topic. A talk was given by Robert Day, principal.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Thirteen men were killed and 10 injured in two traffic accidents, press reports said today.

Nine people died when a truck carrying 98 laborers overturned in Turkish Thrace. Another four were killed in southwestern Anatolia when a truck skidded into a ditch.

Science, Math Dominate Draft Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some of the 400,000 students who took the national draft deferment examination have a tip for those taking the test later: bone up on your science and math.

Those are the subjects they said were found most frequently during the three-hour, 150-question exam. It was administered Saturday at 1,200 colleges and universities in all 50 states, Puerto Rico and the Panama Canal Zone.

The results will be forwarded to local draft boards to help them determine whether the students can stay in school or be drafted into the armed services.

Another 800,000 youths will take the test May 21, June 3 and June 24.

"The examination would have been a cinch for fellows at MIT or any other technical school," said Harvey Stein, 23, a student at Hastings Law School in San Francisco. "But I'm afraid it wasn't for me. I was a history major."

Although they said the examination was easy, two City College of New York students—Peter Gwandtner and Al Samuel—said it was science-oriented, even in the reading comprehension and verbal analogy sections.

Some who took the test said the science and math questions were not difficult, though.

The passing grade is 70 for undergraduates and 80 for graduate students.

Reports indicated only scattered picketing and protests at the test centers Saturday. It had been feared that demonstrations would be staged at many of the sites. But pickets showed up only at about a dozen locations.

Vietnamese Woman Deals With Riots

DALAT, South Viet Nam (AP) — Nguyen Thi Hau, a Vietnamese woman, has problems that would make many men pull their hair. She deals with riots, Communist infiltration, a town's food supply and her own law practice.

Mrs. Hau is the only woman lawyer in South Viet Nam. Her domain is this mountain resort, 185 miles northeast of Saigon.

The petite, 47-year-old mayor was born in North Viet Nam, but has fully adopted Dalat. She moved here in 1954 after the Geneva agreement divided Viet Nam.

"I came with my own parents, my husband and my children," she said in an interview. "My parents died here and are buried here in Dalat; so Dalat is my home town."

She pointed Mrs. Hau March 19. Since then student riots have resulted in seven deaths, the burning of the Hotel Dalat, and the burning of the town's only radio station.

"I couldn't have guessed I would have to deal with such a political situation," she said. "Now we are trying to do our best to bring Dalat to a normal situation so that we can receive more travelers and tourists."

The mayor and her husband, both Buddhists, have three children.

Two sons, 21 and 24 years old, are studying engineering at the University of Montreal. A daughter, 19, is studying science at Coty Junior College at Nevada, Mo., and will enter Radcliffe College next year.

The mayor's husband, Dr. Nguyen Huu Luong, is a surgeon at the civil hospital in Dalat.

BERRY'S WORLD

"Yeah, yeah, I'm his leader—what'd ya want?"

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

MONDAY, MAY 16—Born today, you have all the natural attributes of a born leader. You must, therefore, be careful about the projects you undertake and the people you get to help you with them. It would be extremely easy for you to lead others into great wastes of time, money and effort simply because they will follow wherever you wish to take them and will seldom ask questions. Remember that leadership and the powers of persuasion carry responsibility.

Kindly and sympathetic to all you willingly spend a great deal of time listening to others' tales of woe. Unfortunately, however, you are also prone to giving a great deal in material possessions in your efforts to help others. Remember, however, often the best help is a refusal to help, an insistence that others help themselves. Remember, too, that your loyalty is to your family; don't allow your generosity to others to deprive them.

Somewhat inclined to become a human chattel for the emotions of others, you are likely to waste a great deal of your own responses in echoing the responses of others. Learn to tend yourself well as you are able to tend others.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your guide.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—Keep calm through the morning's uncertainties, and you should be able to turn the tables in your favor. A lost battle isn't a lost war!

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Haste makes waste this morning. Avoid trying to push through plans that obviously need second thoughts.

CANCER (June 22-July 23)—A health-upset this morning could spoil advantages due this afternoon. Avoid taking risks either at work or at home.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—Afternoon and evening are your best times for making financial gains. Spiritual gains, however, can come throughout the day.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—The mayor's husband, Dr. Nguyen Huu Luong, is a surgeon at the civil hospital in Dalat.

Sweet Pulls From Tie on Last Nine to Victory in His Third Buhl Amateur

BUHL—Mike Sweet, a University of Utah law student, playing out of Parma but the adopted golfing son of this community, won his third Buhl amateur golf championship Sunday with a steady, if unspectacular, 176 over the short, tricky course. Sweet, taking his "last fling" at golf for the year, pulled away from a tie over the final nine holes to win the championship by three strokes over Wally Low, Boise. Sweet's lead was insurmountable over the final five holes and it didn't matter when he took a double bogey five against Low's par three on the 27th hole.

Foyt Qualifies New Lotus-Ford for 500

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—A. J. Foyt, one of the fiercest competitors in sports, Sunday qualified a Lotus-Ford fresh out of the packing case for the 50th Indianapolis 500-mile race May 30. The 31-year-old Houston Driver, twice winner of the 500, crashed against a concrete retaining wall Saturday in his No. 1 car in wreck-mirrored trials that took the life of Chuck Roedel, veteran Indianapolis driver.

Foyt's average of 101.355 an hour for the 10-mile run was the best of five Sunday qualifiers who led only 10 spots open for the final qualification next Saturday and Sunday.

Foyt will have to start in 10th position in the seventh three-car race because the 18 Saturday qualifiers hold their positions.

Veteran Bobby Veth of San Lorenzo, Calif., and Al Unser of Albuquerque, N.M., escaped injury in spectacular mishaps Sunday. Veth drove more than a mile with his rear-mounted Chevrolet engine a ball of fire on what started out as a practice run. Fire trucks chased him around the track and smothered the fire with chemicals. Unser's Ford engine caught fire on a qualifying run, but he stopped in the pits and jumped out just as fireman sprayed the Lotus.

Dan Gurney of Costa Mesa, Calif., unable to qualify Saturday because of clutch trouble in his All-American Eagle, made the lineup Sunday at 160.469 m.p.h. Joey Leonard of San Jose, Calif., qualified another of Gurney's Ford-powered Eagles at 159.560.

Other Sunday qualifiers were Roger McCluskey, Tucson, Ariz., 159.271 in another Gurney Ford which is owned by Lindsey Hopkins of Miami, Fla., and Jim Hurtubise of North Tarrant, N.C., 159.208, in a Gerhardt Offenhauser.

The 23 cars qualified over the weekend averaged 100.575 m.p.h. The full 33-car field last year averaged 156.052.

Cardinals Hit Early, Down Atlanta 5-3

ST. LOUIS (AP)—St. Louis scored two unearned runs in the third inning with the help of Joe Torre's error and went on to defeat Atlanta 5-3 Sunday.

The Cardinals had a 2-1 lead when Orlando Cepeda walked with one out in the third and went to third on a double by Tim McCarver, Charlie Smith grounded to second baseman Frank Bolling, who fired to the plate, ostensibly in time to get Cepeda.

But Torres dropped the ball, allowing Cepeda to score and McCarver to reach third. McCarver came home on Julian Javier's sacrifice fly, which would have been the third out in the inning.

Milt Pappas, acquired from Baltimore in the Frank Robinson deal, recorded his third straight triumph for the Reds after being tagged with a pair of defeats. He scattered nine hits.

The Reds loaded the bases in the fourth on a double by Leo Cardenas and a pair of walks before Rose came up with his big double. The Reds added a fourth run in the inning on an error by shortstop Don Kessinger.

Boston Trims Angels to End Losing Skein

ANAHEIM (AP)—Joey Santiago, with a ninth-inning relief hit from Dick Radatz, pulled Boston out of a six-game losing streak Sunday by pitching the Red Sox to a 6-3 second-game victory over California.

The Angels won the opener 5-4 as Joe Adcock and Ed Kirkpatrick each hit two-run homers and Rick Reichardt singled home what proved to be the deciding run.

Santiago held the Angels to six hits in the nightcap, but Radatz relieved him in the ninth after Tom Seaver reached first on George Scott's error and Paul Schaal walked.

Radatz gave up a two-run single to Reichardt but got out of the inning without further damage.

Rico Petrocelli drove in two Boston runs with a sixth-inning homer and a sacrifice fly in the ninth. Scott and Joe Foy contributed run-scoring singles, while Tony Conigliaro and George Smith each tripled in a run.

In the opener, the Angels came from behind with three runs in the seventh and pinned the loss on reliever Darrell Brandon. The victory went to Angel reliever Bob Lee, though Lee Burdette worked the last two innings and survived a one-run uprising.

Foy knocked in two of the Boston runs with a double and sacrifice fly, and Petrocelli

Sutton, Regan Hurl Dodgers Over Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Don Sutton and Phil Regan limited Pittsburgh to six hits as the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the Pirates 3-1 Sunday.

Sutton, a rookie right-hander, gained his fifth victory in eight decisions by holding the Pirates in check through seven innings and striking out six. Regan came on in the eighth and finished up.

The Dodgers scored their first run in the fourth inning on Wes Parker's single and a triple to deep left center by John Roseboro.

In the fifth Maury Wills led off with a bunt and went all the way to second when first baseman Donn Clendenon mistimed the throw from pitcher Don Cardwell. Wills advanced to third on a walk by Cardwell and scored on Willie Davis' single.

Kuenn beat out an infield single in the sixth inning, raced to third on Bill White's single and scored as Jack Brandt singled.

That tied the game 3-3.

In the seventh, Cookie Rojas reached first when his grounder went through Jim Gentile's legs, was sacrificed to second and came home on White's single and run on Kuenn's single to center field.

Indulto Leads Five Horses to Preakness

NEW YORK (AP)—Indulto, a come-from-behind stylist with budding tendencies, leads a five-horse New York invasion of Maryland this week to challenge Kentucky Derby winner Kaul King in the $100,000-added Preakness at Pimlico Saturday. Indulto, owned and bred by Mrs. Edward Lasker, qualified for the second leg of the Triple Crown for 3-year-olds with a nose triumph over previously unbeaten Creme de la Creme in the $39,000 Withers Mile at Aqueduct.

The son of Royal Colosseum, Indulto raced far off the early pace—too far, said 85-year-old trainer Max Baer—and just managed to stay off a great second effort by the favored Creme de la Creme.

Baer said Sunday he probably would not ship the Withers winner to Pimlico before the latter part of the week. Johnny Rota again will be in the saddle for the 1 1/8-mile race of the Preakness.

Mrs. Lasker's chestnut gelding will start the Preakness with a record of four victories in five starts this year after being out of the money only once in eight races as a 2-year-old. His earnings this year are $37,460, with a total bank roll of $114,046.

Joining Indulto, who didn't start in the Kentucky Derby, in the stop-Kaul King campaign will be the New York-based Advocate, the Derby runner-up; Stupendous, who finished fourth; the disappointing Ambergold, who wound up seventh; and either Exhibitionist or Understanding, both trained by Hirsch Jacobs.

Exhibitionist was ninth in the Derby, while Understanding came from last in the stretch to finish fourth in the Withers, nine lengths behind Indulto.

Jacobs said he probably would not make up his mind until the middle of the week on whether it will be Exhibitionist or Understanding as the Preakness entry.

"I'll start one but not both," he said.

Gerry said he wasn't thinking about a record until after he passed the two-mile mark and ran as hard as he could.

Moore finished third behind Lindgren's teammate, Chris Westman.

"I know I have to run hard against Moore because he's such a great competitor and runs so darn hard himself," Moore finished third behind Lindgren's teammate, Chris Westman.

"I'd have to say that three miles is my best race right now. But I think I'll run both the three and six miles in the NCAA meet."

"I know I have to run hard against Moore because he's such a great competitor and runs so darn hard himself," Moore finished third behind Lindgren's teammate, Chris Westman.

Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—A mild stock market rally started today and prices declined once again as the rally advanced to moderate activity and as the advance faltered, the pace slowed considerably below Friday's. Then stocks began to weaken as selling pressure built up.

Most of the initial gains, which ran to a point or two for some popular blue-chips, were wiped away as the new selling drive got under way.

The Dow Jones Industrial average, which had been up 1.22 at the end of the first half hour, was down 4.15 at the first noon.

Increasing weakness was shown by many of the issues in the color television, electronics, aerospace, and airline group which racked up the biggest gains earlier in the year.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 1.0, 320.5 with industrials off 1.0, rails off .6 and utilities unchanged.

The failure of a rally to develop on any following despite last week's very big loss was a further discouragement to traders and investors. But the Street Street backdrop remained confusing to the stock market community, with a continuing debate about the possibility of a tax increase as well as uncertainty as to general prospects in the economy and the situation in Vietnam.

General Motors stretched a fractional loss to more than a point. Alcoa advanced a 2-point advance to a fraction.

Du Pont, Douglas Aircraft, Pan American World Airways, Zenith, and Eastern Airlines showed 3-point declines.

Skelly Oil held a 1-point gain on news of a 3-for-1 stock split.

Eastman-Kodak and New York Central also clung to 1-point gains.

U.S. Smelting, reporting a gain in profits, remained 3 points higher. IBM, Polaroid and Control Data were up 1 each, as was United Aircraft (ex dividend).

Ford lost a fraction but Chrysler and American Telephone and Electric were among fractional gainers.

Prices were mixed in active trading on the American Stock Exchange. Conduction and Ford of Canada advanced 2 each. National Video, nearly 2. Xerox, more than a point. Down about 2 each were Puerto Rico Telephone, Syntex and Frontier Airlines. Losses of more than a point were shown by Harford Electric and 1/2, Hoe and Ticker. A fraction. Other losers of a point were General Cinema and Okie Copper.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds were mostly unchanged.
